Previous Work

Clay was a summer associate with ArentFox Schiff in 2022. He previously was a student attorney at Boston College Law School, advising small business clients and formerly incarcerated entrepreneurs on their consumer privacy requirements. Clay also spent summer 2021 as a Legal Fellow with New England First Amendment Coalition (NEFAC), conducting legal research on New England's "Right to Know" laws, and produced a webpage and FOI guide to serve as a resource for all New England states.

While in law school, Clay served as a member of Lambda's Executive Board and was an At-Large Member of the National LGBTQ+ Bar Association's Law Student Congress Executive Board.

Memberships
